ERRATA.—In an editorial article yesterday the words "material thrill" should be, obviously, as written, material thrill.

So the word "following," in the paragraph at the end of the proceedings of the national convention, should have been following.

LAST month there were shipped from the St. Albans station eleven hundred and sixty-five boxes of Misses' water—twenty-three hundred and thirty dozen bottles.

BUILDING IN NEW YORK.—Anson Burlingame, special ambassador of the Chinese government, arrived in N. Y. city on Thursday.

THE St. Albans Brigade Band played one or two pieces from the "Bandbox" around the liberty pole last evening, and it is unnecessary to say, that their music was "tip top." The Band will give a concert at the Academy Hall on the evening of the 28th inst. instead of the 25th as previously announced.

THE summer arrangement of the Vermont Central and Sullivan Railroads commences on Monday. Trains will leave St. Albans as follows: Going South and East, 6:20 a. m., 12:00 noon, and 8 p. m. North and West, for Montreal at 6:10 a. m. and 6:15 p. m.; for Rouse's Point, Ogdensburg and West, 6:05, 11:00 a. m., and 7:15 p. m.

REV. DR. BISSELL.—The Rev. Dr. Bissell, the Bishop elect of the Diocese of Vermont, left Geneva, N. Y., on the 12th inst. A correspondent of the Gospel Messenger, printed at Utica, says his last evening was spent at Walnut School, with whose successful, though unobtrusive and noiseless growth Dr. Bissell has been familiar from its foundation. After the usual evening service, during which the boys manifested an unwonted tenderness and earnestness, Dr. Bissell delivered an eloquent address on the nature or true heroism. The Messenger's correspondent says: "Among the manifestations of attachment which his promotion to the Episcopate has brought out, the most touching have been made by the children of his great parish, by the pupils, and by every one connected with Walnut Hill. Dr. Bissell will now be held in most affectionate and grateful remembrance."

FRANKLIN COUNTY COURT.—Besides receiving the verdict in the case of Clark vs. Burton on Friday, the Court arraigned Lyman Jones and Carlton Learned, two boys, who had practiced stealing under the tutelage of Merritt Leonard, now in jail, and on pleading guilty they were sentenced to the Reform School for three years. Hosea Comstock was arraigned at his own request, plead guilty, and was sentenced to three years in state prison, for larceny.

In the evening the Court assembled and heard a petition for a new trial in the Clark and Burton case, presented by the plaintiff. The petition substantially sets up that the defendant has obtained his verdict by improper and corrupt practices upon the jury, and that the verdict is not in accordance with the evidence. After hearing the petition and the remarks of Counsel, the Court stated that they had concluded to hold an adjourned term, commencing on the 16th of June, for the purpose of further hearing of the case, and made the following order: The plaintiff is to close his testimony by the 5th of June, except the testimony of D. R. Bailey, which must be taken before the 10th of June. The defendant is to close his testimony by the 15th of June. Both parties are to give the adverse party four days' notice, by serving notice upon party or counsel. The Court then adjourned until the 16th of June.

A Ratification Meeting.

I approve most heartily of the suggestion made in Thursday's TRANSCRIPT for a meeting to be held at an early day to ratify the nominations made at Chicago, and hope our leading Republicans will move in the matter at once.

WATER WHEEL.

St. Albans, May 22.

VERMONT AT CHICAGO.—Gen. Wm. W. Grout, of Boarton, was a member of the committee on permanent organization, and Wm. H. Johnson, of Bellows Falls, member of the committee on resolutions.

The headquarters of the delegation were at the Sherman House, on the first floor. Directly across the hall were the headquarters of the New York delegation.

The delegation was a unit for Colfax on every ballot.

Personal.

MR. S. C. MOORE, of Burlington, will sail from New York for San Francisco early next month. The Times says:

Our community will be sorry to lose Mr. Moore. The loss of a cultivated musician from a place where such attainments are as rare as they are in Burlington, is of itself a matter for serious regret. In Mr. Moore we lose a man whose genial and courteous spirit has impelled him always to make a generous use of his professional ability and influence for the entertainment of our people, who owe many pleasant hours to Mr. Moore's good will, and we shall all say good bye to him with sincere regret.

Senator Henderson, of Missouri, it is said, is soon to marry a Washington belle, Miss Foote, a niece of the late Senator Foote.

Wm. Mackenzie, for several years the well-known operator of the New York wire in Montreal Telegraph Office, has established himself in business as an Exchange and Stock broker, at 98 St. Francis Xavier street. Mr. Mackenzie's many Burlington friends and acquaintances will not forget to call on him when in Montreal.—Times.

Hon. John Roberts died at his residence at Fayetteville, this State, May 14th, aged 87 years. His funeral was attended with Masonic honors. Judge Roberts was nearly, if not quite the oldest member of Windham County bar, and during his long residence in Whitingham and Townshend, the Phoenix says, he gained the respect and honor of the public in a high degree; by the rectitude of his character. He leaves a widow and children.

The Marshalltown Times suggests that the Republicans of the Sixth Iowa district elect Horace Greely to Congress—they being apparently unable to agree upon any one of the many resident candidates.

The Convention.

We give below the remainder of the proceedings of the Chicago Convention, so far as they are of interest to all.

The total vote on the first call was 618, making 326 necessary for a choice, and the number varied but slightly from this one on any of the roll calls. Mr. Wade led with 149; Mr. Fenton, 132; Mr. Wilson, 108; Mr. Colfax 119; Mr. Curtin, 52; Mr. Hamlin, 28; John A. J. Crosswell, 14; Samuel C. Pomeroy, 1; Jas. G. Speed, 12.

On the second ballot, Mr. Speed's name was withdrawn. Wade had 170; Fenton, 140; Wilson, 113; Hamlin, 30; and Curtin, 45; Colfax 149.

On the fourth roll call Pennsylvania cast the most of its vote for Wade, and New Hampshire left Wilson for Wade, bringing his vote up to over two hundred.

The roll call began for the fifth time, Pennsylvania, by one majority, changed to Colfax, and so did Tennessee. The fifth ballot stood:—Wade, 206; Fenton, 142; Wilson, 56; Colfax, 226. Pennsylvania became unanimous for Colfax, Louisiana, Connecticut and Massachusetts followed, and then came almost all the other States, Illinois came last.—New York only stood out and insisted on the announcement of the vote; the chairman announced it; Colfax 522—200 majority over all.

New York was the last State to surrender, having five times cast her 66 votes for Governor Fenton, but she was now powerless, and Gen. Sickles was forced to move that the nomination of Colfax be made unanimous—a request which the friends of Wade seconded—and so the field was won.

GRANT AND COLFAX WERE UNANIMOUSLY DECLARED THE NOMINEES OF THE UNION REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Gen. Grant was nominated on the platform the substance of which was telegraphed late on Thursday night to Mr. Colfax, who laid the platform before the General on Friday morning, and afterwards telegraphed to Chicago that the General heartily approved it.

When at last the platform had been accepted, and it became proper to nominate the candidates who are to be placed upon it, a scene of the wildest enthusiasm ensued. All rose to their feet; hats and handkerchiefs were waved; the famed Light Guard band performed patriotic airs, and a dove, colored red, white and blue, was released by a lady in one of the boxes and flew around the large amphitheatre, State after State wheeled into column, and they will move forward on the enemy's works under the leader thus chosen "fighting it out on this line if it takes all summer."

The platform is sound, every plank is in the right place, and radical views are proclaimed in a conservative manner. Great national questions, affecting the rights and the interests of our citizens at home and abroad, are squarely met and properly treated. The impeachment of the President; the privilege of citizenship; the question of suffrage; the debt of gratitude to our gallant soldiers and sailors; and the equalization of taxation, are well cared for, and the Convention indorsed all of the positions so plainly taken with approving applause.

The Convention adjourned on Thursday night.

THE ATHEIST.—The atheist was a production of the eighteenth century. He took rank as such. His unbelief was almost a profession. When an individual was discovered to possess this quality, he was regarded with a species of horror not unmixed with fascination. People communicated the fact to their friends mysteriously, as did our heroine in the case of M. de Wolmar and M. de Sainte-Lette. Three quarters of the people of our day believe in nothing after the grave, and still never suspect that they are atheists. They go at the hap-hazard, in perfect unconcern, and excite no particular remark. Is not ours really the worse situation of the two? and does not the incredulous solemnity of the eighteenth century prove that the men of that day were nearer faith than we?—[Saint Beuve.
